CAPTURED A NEGRO BURGLAR

When Discovered in the House He Threatened to Kill the Inmates.

Shortly after 1 o'clock this morning, Chief of Police Murphy, of Jersey City, who lives on Fourth street near Jersey avenue, was awakened by women's shricks from the house

The Chief hurriedly dressed himself, and reached the street in time to see Policeman Williams, who had in charge a negro whom he had seen escaping from 259 Fourth street, occupied by Samuel E. Hughes, a clerk in the employ of the Baltimore and Obio Railroad Company, and his mother, Obio Statiroad Company, and his mother, prother and sister.

Chief Murphy took charge of the prisoner and Sergt. Jelly and Patrolman Williams made an examination, but found no other burglar in the house, the men having escaped through Jerser avenue.

The prisoner described himself as Edward Houry Smith, of 113 Sixth avenue. New York and said that he was recently employed on the harbor police boat.

He had on an overcoat which had been taken from the room occupied by Samuel E. Shuches and his brother.

An entrance had been effected through the parior window, and the entre lower part of the bouse had been raneacked, and silverware and other property had been attended upon the first model of the content of the form of the parior window, and the entre lower part of the bouse had been raneacked, and silverware and other property had been attended upon the saling who was there a strange voice apasseries: "You say one word and I will shoot you."

The man then noved out of the room and Mrs. Hughes and her danchter gave the alarm which led to be arrest.

The prisoner was committed for trial,

WHO KNOWS THIS SUICIDE?

"Miss Byrnes" Took Paris Green in a Third Avenue Hotel, The body of a young woman, known only "Miss Byrnes," lies in the Morgue,

She was found dead in a chair in a room in Sanford's Hotel, 25 Third avenue, yesterday morning, ciad only in a night dress, a set of prayer beasie in her lands.

A partly omitted bettle of Paris green lay beside her on a table, and traces of the now-der about her lips showed that she had taken the poisson with suicidal intent.

The hotel clerk knew her by sight, but her real name or the address of any friends dued with her apparently, for although a number of prouse called at the Morgae this morning more count intentity her.

She will be buried in Potter's Field next Tuesday, unless claimed by filends.

Stripping the Wrecked Schooner. FIRE ISLAND, L. I. April 11.—It hought that the schooner Auna E. Morse tofore reported ashore at West-hampton, cannot be saved. The work of stripping her was begin to day, due ites on the outer har with a high sea breaking
